Work History

UPS-Revenue Recovery Clerk/Warehouse

Revenue Recovery- I find and correct packages which haven't paid the full amount for weight or size, which gives a way of gaining otherwise lost revenue.

High Value- I process the high value packages in the computer and check them in the office before sending them on.

Processor- I also help with the preloading process in the warehouse to fill the trucks to get your packages on time.

Guitar Lessons Made Simple

My own local business where I teach guitar lessons to all ages with an emphasis on fundamental acoustic techniques. This has taught me:

- ✚ How to work with clients, inspire students and help them achieve their goals
- ✚ How to think like a marketer by figuring out how to solve problems, finding my own take on a need in the market, and inspiring others' passions and creativity.

- + Business and internet marketing skills like search engine marketing, writing, social media, design, basic sales and networking.

- + How to teach others a creative skill with patience and step-by-step methods

Freelance Blogger/Copywriter

Writing involves bringing forth ideas, telling your story, promoting a brand, selling a product or teaching a skill..

Through taking on articles for clients and keeping two blogs of my own I learned to work with clients, meet deadlines, and use a creative skill for both business and personal use.

Volunteerism

Truelife Church

Play guitar and keyboard for the morning service and the Spanish speaking service.

Travel/Language

Spain, Morocco, Mexico, Canada

Travelling abroad enriches your life, and I'd encourage everyone to do this. I'm familiar with very basic Spanish, and love experiencing another cultures.

Client Testimonials

“Josh has been a great instructor for me. He has worked diligently with me at my pace (very slow), and has been thoughtful about creative techniques that he can use to teach me. I recommend Josh as a guitar teacher for anyone.” – Patrick Reagon-Director of Access Services at Providence Hospital

“With Josh’s guidance and lots of practice, by Xmas I was playing encore performances for family and friends. They Loved it!” –Tien Rachel Dign – Small business owner, massage therapist
